

Good-night Square

A square dance involving kissing.

Music: I Said My Pajamas

INTRODUCTION

Honors to your corner, honors to your own;
Swing your little honey, you swing her all alone;
Take her by the wing, you promenade the ring:
Promenade your partner - - - good night!

FIGURE

The first couple swing in the middle of the ring,
Six join your hands and circle while I sing,
Six turn your backs, close you peepers tight:
Kiss your little honey - - - good night!

(If desired, the orchestra may pause here for a chorus of wolf-whistles, or, if preferred, a few bars of "Kiss Me Again" or "Heart Full of Love".

Second couple swing etc....

ENDING

Repeat introduction.

EXPLANATION

Figure: first couple swings in the middle of the set while the others form a ring around them and circle once around to the left. While the others turn their backs and close their eyes (oh, yeah!) the first couple kiss.
